YIDOCM PROJECT AT THE CINEMA AMBIENTE FESTIVAL IN TORINO

We present, within the framework of the Innovation Project Youngsters I.Doc Makers (YIDOCM), granted by European Commission ERASMUS+ PROGRAMME, KEY ACTION 2: "Strategic partnerships in the field of education training and youth", the documentary "The Climate Puppets, cut the ropes", a documentary created by young people from 5 European Vocational Schools in Madrid, Berlin, Rome and Vienna (languages: English, Italian and Spanish).

The documentary shows four stories on two issues of particular relevance to the future of young Europeans: Climate change and migration flows in Europe, and the connections that can be found in between. These topics are addressed from the point of view of several young people, who personally face these global challenges.

The event will be at University MultiLab, Università di Torino with the following program:

- Introduction to the project and documentary by the teachers & the authors (students).
- Screening of the documentary "The Climate Puppets, cut the ropes" (VO with Italian subtitles).
- Conversations with the authors of the documentary
